ANNIE THERESE DAVAUT COMING FOR RECITAL

Annie Therese Davaut, the noted dramatic reader and interpreter of great plays, will visit this city on the evening of Monday, November 21, at the grammar school in one of her dramatic recitals. This is the third number of the Lyceum course. Miss Davaut comes with the finest recommendations as to her ability. Her present Lyceum tour has been a "glittering success and everywhere her audiences have been profuse in commending her work as of the highest. She is unquestionably one of the most talented readers of character delineations of the day. She has the rare gift of controlling the emotions of her audiences at will, bringing laughter, smiles, tears and heartaches.

She appears in many popular successes in the standard dramas, notably "The Music Master," "Peg O' My Heart," "The Melting Pot" and "Polly of the Circus." It is hard to tell in which one of her masterly productions her work appears at its best. She does them all with an artistry which astounds critics and lovers of high class dramatic work.

A discerning newspaper critic on a large Southern daily sized up the art of Miss Davaut in the following paragraph: "The audience at the auditorium to hear Miss Davaut was one of the most attentive that has come under the spell of an auditorium artist in a long time. Possibly any and all criticism of Miss Davaut's can be summed up in the simple statement that the eyes of many men in the audience were moist."

The Attica (Ind.) Daily Ledger said of her: "Annie Therese Davaut gave the best reading ever given at our Chautauqua. She impresses one as being perfectly natural. Her art is the art that conceals art, perhaps, but she made a strong appeal to the audience."

CIRCLE MEETING

Circle 5, of the Junior Circle of the Presbyterian Auxiliary held a meeting Monday afternoon with Misses Lewellyn and Elizabeth Marshall. It was a meeting of special pleasure, as the members had as their guests Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Sherrill.

The Circle is taking as its study for the winter months the book, "Playing Square With Tomorrow," written to the young American of today.

After the devotional, led by Miss Elizabeth Marshall, Mr. Sherrill, touching on the study, made a talk on "Following the Crowd," bringing out in a clear and interesting way to the young minds the realization of what it means to them and to the crowd to wield a Christian influence in the community in which they live.

Miss Agnes Witherington read a story, "A Cluster of American Beauties," with the lesson taught that Christ wants the sweet, joyous service of our youth to make it a thousand times more beautiful and sweet and full of joy.

Miss Nell Somervell conducted a Bible study in questions, after which a most enjoyable lunch of salad, sandwiches, pickles and chocolate was served.

The Circle was glad to welcome two new members and will hold the December meeting with Mrs. T. C. Howard.

BRYAN SPEAKS ON CHARACTER BUILDING

An address by William J. Bryan on "Education and Character" featured the night session of the first annual conference of the Southern Co-operative League in Chattanooga Monday, which held a four-day meeting.

In the morning session Dr. C. V. Roman, editor of the negro medical journal, of Nashville, Tenn., in an address at the open forum attacked "negro domination" and "Jim Crow" laws, declaring "racial separatism is wholesome and ethnic primacy is necessary, but 'Jim Crowism' neither pretends or provides either."

Former Gov. Charles H. Brough, of Arkansas, who presided at the morning session, discussed educational problems of the South, while Robert S. Holmes, of Daytona, Fla., secretary of the Open Forum Council, outlined the activities of that organization.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT

Big Creek Drainage District No. 4—In the County Court of Tipton County, Tennessee, at Covington, Tennessee.

Notice is hereby given to all persons, firms and corporations concerned as owners, lien holders, encumbrancers, encumbrancees, mortgagors, mortgagees, trustees, lessees, occupants, or having any interest in any lands included within the boundaries of said drainage district as hereinafter set out, or in any way interested in the same, whether residents of the State of Tennessee or non-residents of said State, of the hearing on Wednesday, the 30th day of November, 1921, at 1 o'clock p. m., before the Hon. John V. Peete, Judge of the County Court of Tipton County, Tennessee, at the office of said Judge in the courthouse in Covington, Tennessee, of the petition on file in this cause and proceeding, and of the report of the engineers of the preliminary survey, profiles, maps, blue prints, etc., and all exhibits to said report, and the entire record in this cause for the purpose of determining whether said drainage district and other improvements set forth in said petition and said record and proceedings to establish the same shall be established as provided by law. The lands embraced in said drainage district being included within the following boundaries, to-wit:

Beginning upon the waters of Big Creek at a point about one and one-half miles west of Munford, Tipton County, Tennessee, where said Big Creek is crossed by the Munford and Drummond road; and runs thence in a southerly direction with the meanders of said creek to a point about one-half mile south of the line between Shelby County and Tipton County, Tennessee, the same being the point where a drainage canal begins in said County of Shelby, the same having been established by the County Court of said County, and known as the Shelby County Big Creek Drainage District, and extending on each side of said creek to the foothills thereof so as to take in all the lands lying upon said creek or in the bottom thereof that are subject to overflow from said creek.

All of said land is more fully set out and described in the report, map, blue prints, drawings, profiles, etc., of the engineers, and in said petition on file herein, and all proceedings in this cause are hereby referred to for further information as to the purpose of said hearing.

It is further ordered that two consecutive weeks in the Covington Leader, a weekly newspaper published in Covington, Tipton County, Tennessee, and that it be published in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, a daily newspaper published in Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee.

Done by order of the Court on this the 10th day of November, 1921. C. P. SIMONTON, Clerk of the County Court of Tipton County, Tennessee. Simonton, Gwinn & Shoaf, Attorneys for Petitioners.

PROMINENT FARMER IS VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Mr. Sidney Hindman, a well known citizen of Brighton, was killed instantly while hunting on his farm near Brighton Friday morning, when he tripped and fell over a tree root, his shot gun being discharged and the load entering his left side.

Mr. Hindman was alone. When he did not return home for supper his brothers began to search for him. His body was found in the woods 700 or 400 yards from the house. His foot had caught in a small tree root. The gun was lying a few feet from the body. The body was cold when found, showing that he had been dead for a number of hours.

Mr. Hindman, who frequently went hunting, is said to have been in the habit of holding the muzzle of his gun, which was an automatic, in his left hand. Mr. Hindman who was about 55 years of age, was a widower, his wife having died exactly 13 years ago from the day on which he met his death.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Martha Hindman; a sister, Miss Maud Hindman and three brothers, Thomas, Hemphill and Cecil Hindman. He was a member of the Brighton A. R. P. church.

The funeral was held at the residence at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Boyd, pastor of the Brighton A. R. P. church, conducting the services. Burial was in Salem cemetery.

SOCIAL WORKERS TO HOLD CONFERENCE HERE

Letters have been received from Mrs. Claud D. Sullivan, president of the Tennessee Conference of Social Work, and from Mrs. Jos. C. Logan, assistant manager of the Southern Division, American Red Cross, telling that Covington had been selected as the place to hold the one-day conference of Social Workers on Tuesday, November 22.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross held November 4, it was voted that the Red Cross should take charge of arrangements for this conference. The Methodist church was secured as a meeting place, and the ladies of one of the societies will doubtless serve luncheon.

This conference will bring to our city many experts in social and community work. They will discuss such questions as "Juvenile Delinquency," "Unemployment," "Care of Disadvantaged Families," "Community Recreation," etc. The subjects will particularly interest ministers, church leaders, school teachers, physicians, heads of civic and business organizations and all public-spirited citizens concerned in the welfare of the community.

Further announcements, including the program, will be made later.

NOTICE

Friday, the 11th day of November, having been declared a legal holiday, the postoffice force will observe same. There will be only one delivery for the city. The postoffice will have the window open from 9 a. m. to 10 a. m.
